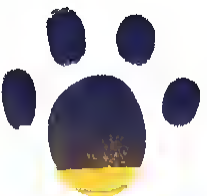
ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Energy Saving Mode

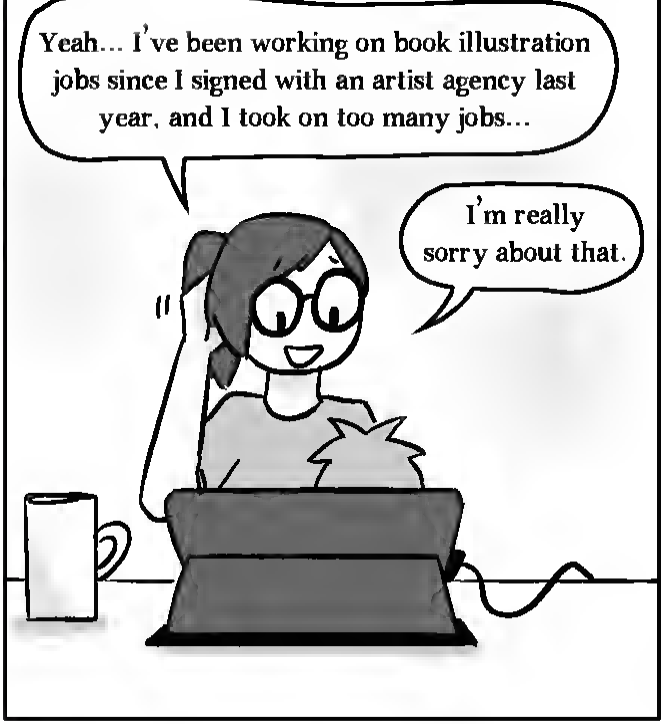


Hello everyone, this is Bonnie here.

I'm have an urgent project in the next 2 weeks and sadly I won't have enough time to draw RSJ.
I will keep updating but the comics will be shorter.

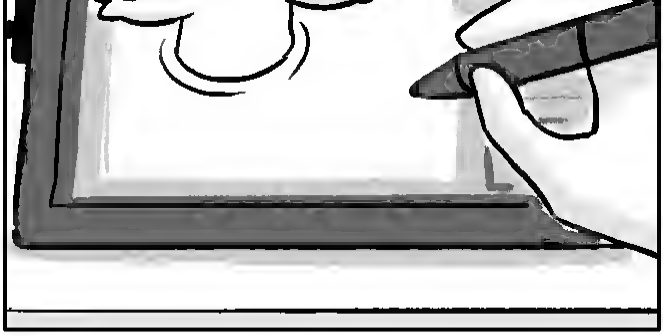
Sorry about that!

What?
No time for RSJ?

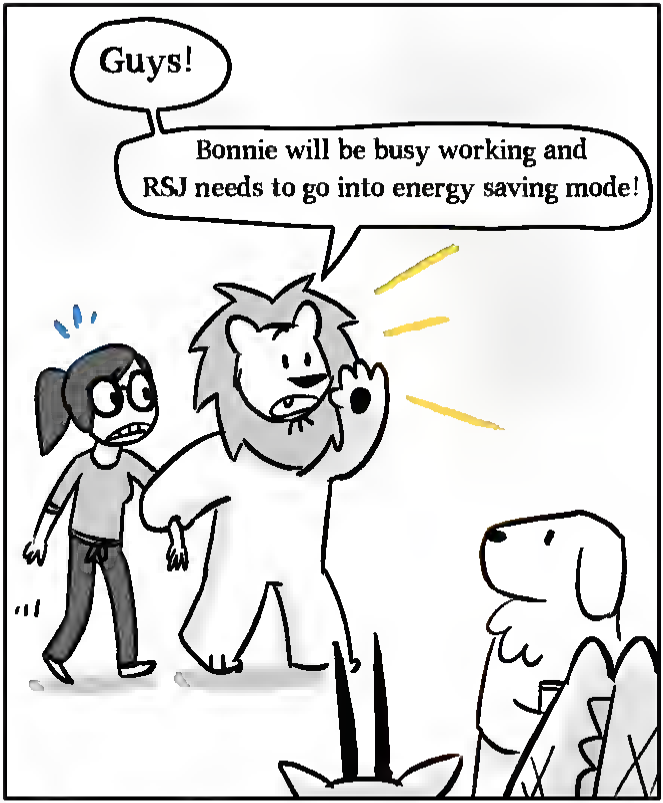


Yeah... I've been working on book illustration jobs since I signed with an artist agency last year, and I took on too many jobs...
I'm really sorry about that.

You don't treat us as your first priority?
How dare you?!



It's not that -- I'm not a student anymore and I need to make a living...
We need to talk.



Guys!
Bonnie will be busy working and RSJ needs to go into energy saving mode!

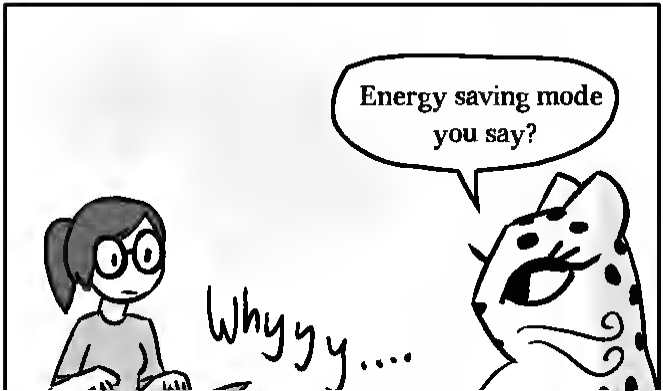
You work on new jobs and leave us in the dark and cold everytime...

Why are you doing this to me?!

*Episode 75



Energy saving mode you say?
Whyyy....

If Bonnie needs to sustain her living in order to make better RSJ comics, then let her work however she wants.

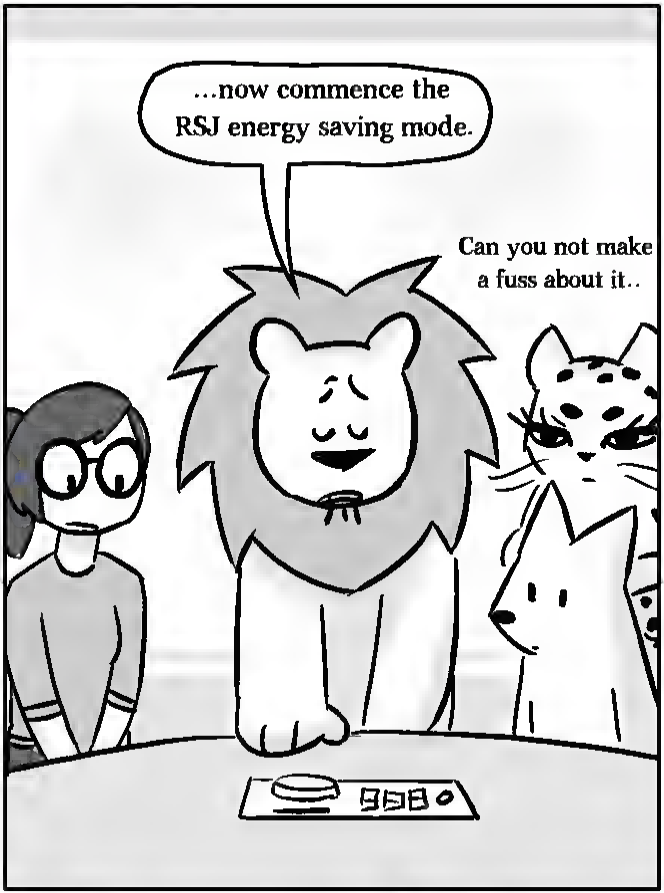
Thanks Cheetah-B...

With all due respect to our author...
I, Leo, president of Roar Street Journal,



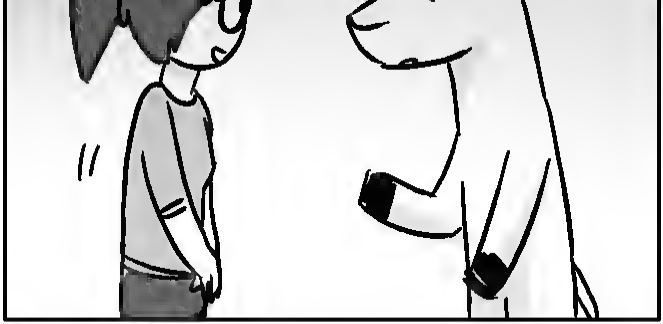
...now commence the RSJ energy saving mode.
Can you not make a fuss about it..

LIGHT

I will never forget all the things you've done for us, dear author.
You will always be remembered in RSJverse.

All the best.
We'll be fine.
Thanks Cheetah-B.

Please take good care of yourself Bonnie...
I will, thanks Anntelope.



Yes! No annoying office work!
Oh - and all the best with your work!
Please keep the company running while I'm not here, Mr. Pigkles.

Take it easy Bonnie!
You are the typical Virgo who always take on too much work!
Remember to relax!
Yes I am... thanks Giraffiel.

It's nice to take a break now and then.
It can let the brain rest and promotes better performance.
Thanks for the encouragement, Doglas...
Take care Bonnie.

We'll miss you Bonnie!
Please come back soon!

Take care Bonnie!
We will always support you!
Thanks Horsie...

All is well.
I will remind myself of your wise words, Master Elephunk...

Take care.

No worries Bonnie,
just do what you need to do!
We always love you!
